

Centre for Environmental and
Resource Management

Training Program on Addressing Sexual Exploitation and Abuse, and Sexual Harassment (SEA/SH) in Development Projects Based on World Bank ESF Standards

Training Objectives

- Understand SEA/SH principles under the World Bank ESF
- Build capacity to identify and manage SEA/SH risks
- Strengthen prevention, reporting, and response mechanisms
- Promote survivor-centered approaches in project implementation

Expected Outcomes

- Ability to assess SEA/SH risks in projects
- Capacity to prepare SEA/SH Action Plans
- Improved reporting and referral practices

18- 19 August, 2026

9:00 am - 5:00 pm

CERM Seminar Room,
BUET, Dhaka-1000

Target Participants

- PIU Staff
- Relevant Government Officials
- NGO Professionals
- Representatives from UN Agencies

Resource Persons

The training sessions will be conducted by experienced professionals with expertise in the World Bank Environmental and Social Framework (ESF), SEA/SH risk management, and environmental and social safeguards.

THE WORLD BANK
IBRD • IDA | WORLD BANK GROUP

This initiative is proudly supported by BD ES Learning Center

MORE INFORMATION:

- cermoffice@cerm.buet.ac.bd
- 01326725772